

CELEBRATE HISTORY WEEK AT THE MUSEUM OF FIRE

5-13 SEPTEMBER 2020

"HISTORY: WHAT IS IT GOOD FOR?"

History Week 2020 asks "what is history good for" and here at the Museum of Fire we know it is good for everything! Without understanding the past, we can't move into the future, so we welcome everyone to come and participate in 2020's History Week at the Museum of Fire! We have lots on offer!

The Museum of Fire is open daily 9:30am - 4:30pm

Visit www.museumoffire.net for more information and to book your place!

SUNDAY 6TH SEPTEMBER

FREE entry for all Dad's! (regular pricing for the rest of the family)

HISTORY WEEK KEYNOTE PRESENTATION*

When: 11am

Where: Museum of Fire Theatre

Cost: FREE with Full price Museum Entry. Spaces are strictly limited and Bookings are essential.

Join our Master of Ceremonies Superintendent Peter Stathis AFSM and guest speakers as they answer the question – "what is history good for?"

Featured Speakers Include:

Belinda McMartin, Museum of Fire Interim CEO and former Senior Heritage and Research Officer

Ian Grimwood, Station Officer Lismore Fire Station and FRNSW Military Service and Honours Historian

David Tai, Station Officer Cranebrook and author of "Leading from the Front" the story of the brigade's Chief Officers 1884-2015

The Museum's new membership program will also be launched with special tribute paid to former CEO Mark White OAM AFSM

*Also available digitally see our website and social media for more information.